

July 2009

For immediate release

For further information contact:

Sally Bonneau, BPS, Inc., Indianapolis, 317.846.8965 (office), 317.965.5566 (cell)

Frustrated? Mad as #%!&!? Let it out at Church Brothers' *Vehicle Destruction Zone!

INDIANAPOLIS – Are you frustrated with the way things seem to be going lately? At wits' end with the economy? Tired of working like a dog with nothing to show for it? Furious with those who are making out like bandits on the backs of the little guy?

The Marion County Fair and Church Brothers Collision Repair feel your pain. And they've collaborated in an effort to help you feel better – for a little while, at least – during the 79th Marion County Fair, now through August 1.

For just $1, fairgoers will have the opportunity to take three enthusiastic swings at one of three old “junkers” on display at Church Brothers' Vehicle Destruction Zone! on the north side of Expo Hall. Sledgehammers will be made available in two sizes – large for adults, not-so-big for the youngsters - and guests will be encouraged to swing away!

To make things even more interesting, the vehicles have been dressed up for their big days at the fair. Fairgoers will be slamming into images depicting a range of villains such as AIG, Enron, Bernie Madoff, higher taxes – even Tom Brady and Kyle Busch, among many others.

All proceeds from Church Brothers' Vehicle Destruction Zone! will benefit the Indianapolis-based Tony Stewart Foundation. The foundation of the current NASCAR Sprint Cup points' leader provides grants to help critically ill or injured children, abused or endangered animals, and injured race drivers and their families. For additional information about the foundation, log on at www.tonystewartfoundation.org.

The Vehicle Destruction Zone! will be up and running during fair hours for all 10 days. For more information, log on to the fair's new website, www.marioncountyfair.org or to Church Brothers Collision Repair's website, www.church-brothers.com. While on the Church Brothers' site, be sure to register to win pro football tickets for a game at Lucas Oil Stadium during the upcoming season.

The 79th annual Marion County Fair is July 23 – August 1 at the Marion County Fairgrounds, 7300 East Troy Avenue (just east of the I-465 & Southeastern Avenue interchange). One of Central Indiana’s most outstanding entertainment bargains, fair admission is just $5 per person; children 5 and under are free, and parking is free. Make it YOUR fair! – the 79th annual Marion County Fair. For more information, log on at www.marioncountyfair.org.