

bpsindy.com

29 July 2010

For immediate release

For further information contact:

Sally Bonneau, BPS, Marketing, Inc., Indianapolis, 846.8965 (office), 965.5566 (cell)

Got an ugly lamp? Take it to Marion County Fair!

INDIANAPOLIS -- There's still time to enter a trio of contests being held at the Marion County Fair's Family Arts Building.

Competitions continue through the fair's final day this Saturday, and include:

- Ugly Lamp. Family Arts Building director Carol Waterman is on the hunt for the most hideous lamp in Marion County! If you have one on your hands that fits the description, bring it over to the fair – it may win a prize!
- Goin' Green. As we all become more environmentally aware, more and more ingenious ways to “go green” are discovered. Bring in your best example of a re-purposed item to show fairgoers how you've gone green.
- Lego® Contest. Who doesn't love playing with this iconic childhood toy? The fair is looking for the top adult-and-child team that has worked together to build the most imaginative Lego® creation!

For more information about these competitions, additional Family Arts Building exhibits and contests, and other events and activities at the 80th anniversary Marion County Fair, log on at www.marioncountyfair.org.

The 80th anniversary Marion County Fair is July 22-31 at the Marion County Fairgrounds, 7300 East Troy Avenue (just east of the I-465 & Southeastern Avenue interchange). One of Central Indiana's most outstanding entertainment bargains, fair admission is just $5 per person; children 5 and under are FREE; US military, active or retired, are FREE with ID, and parking is FREE. Make it YOUR fair! – the 80th anniversary Marion County Fair. For more information and discount offers, log on at www.marioncountyfair.org.